In the event a future discovery dispute arises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that before filing any discovery motion before this Court, the parties must comply with the following:

1. Lead trial counsel for both parties must meet and confer in person regarding the matter(s) at issue. This meeting shall occur after other efforts to resolve the dispute, such as telephone, e-mail, teleconference, or correspondence, have been unsuccessful. Once those efforts have proved unsuccessful, any party may demand a

1 meeting of lead trial counsel to resolve a discovery matter. Such a meeting shall 2 occur within ten (10) calendar days of the demand. The locations of the meetings
3 shall alternate. The first meeting shall be at a location selected by counsel for 5 location to be determined by counsel for Defendant(s), etc.

7 referred to above, the parties shall jointly file a detailed letter with the Court, not to 8 exceed five (5) pages without leave of Court, which will include the matters that 9 remain in dispute, a detailed substantive description of each side's position on each 10 such issue, and a description of each side's proposed compromise on each such issue.
11 3. After the Court has received the joint letter, the Court will determine what future 12 proceedings, if any, are necessary.

13 In the event that the parties continue to be unable to resolve the matters regarding the timing
14 and scope of discovery, the Court will consider what future actions are necessary. These actions 15 may include the following: (1) sanctions against a party failing to cooperate in the discovery process
16 and meet and confer in good faith, as required by this Order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 17 and the Local Rules of this Court; and/or (2) requiring the Chief Executive Officers of each party to 18 attend the in-person, meet-and-confer sessions described above. The Court is not entering either of 19 these matters as an Order of the Court at this time, and fully expects counsel to meet their 20 obligations under this Order and under the Local Rules.

21 A party or counsel has a continuing duty to supplement the initial disclosure when required
22 under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e)(1).

23 Law and motion matters may be submitted without argument upon stipulation of the parties
24 and notification of the Court no later than 4:30 p.m. the day before the hearing. Pursuant to Civil L.
